History

One of the most frequently asked questions about Gonzaga University is the origin of the name. Who was St. Aloysius Gonzaga? He is an Italian Jesuit saint of the 16th century. In 1887 when Father Joseph Cataldo (pictured above), an Italian born Jesuit, founded Gonzaga College in Spokane, Washington, it seemed fitting to name the new school after his fellow Jesuit and fellow Italian, St. Aloysius Gonzaga.

Aloysius is the Latin form of Gonzaga's given name, Luigi. In English, the equivalent form would be Louis. The Gonzaga name is well known in Italy. Aloysius Gonzaga was born at Castiglione near Mantua, Italy, in 1568 to a celebrated family of wealth and prestige. As the first born son of his father, Ferrante, and his mother, Marta, he was in line to inherit his father's title of Marquis. He grew up amid the violence and brutality of the Renaissance Italy and witnessed the murder of two of his brothers. In 1576, Aloysius' parents sent him to attend the court of the Grand Duke of Tuscany, Francesco de' Medici, in Florence. Later, accompanied by his parents, he traveled to Spain to join the court of Philip II in Madrid.

In Spain, Aloysius decided he wanted to join the newly founded religious order, The Society of Jesus. His father resisted his decision and there followed a struggle of wills that continued after his return to Castiglione in 1584. But Aloysius eventually prevailed. Renouncing his right to the title of Marquis and to the vast wealth he was destined to inherit, he entered the Society of Jesus in Rome on November 25, 1585. During his early studies in Rome, he would regularly go out into the streets of the city to care for victims of the plague. He himself contracted the disease as a result of his efforts for the suffering and died on June 21, 1591, at the age of twenty-three, six years short of his ordination as a Jesuit priest.

Even before his time as a Jesuit, Aloysius was known for his love of prayer and fasting. He received his First Communion from St. Charles Borromeo. As a Jesuit at the Roman College, he continued to devote his time to prayer and practices of austerity. His spiritual director was Robert Bellarmine who later was canonized and declared a doctor of the church. When Robert was dying, he asked to be buried next to the grave of Aloysius. Today, they rest next to each other in the church of St. Ignatius Loyola in Rome. Pope Benedict XIII canonized Aloysius in 1726, and three years later declared him to be the patron of youth in the Catholic Church, an honor later confirmed by Pope Pius XI in 1926.

Adjacent to our university campus is a parish church, St. Aloysius. A statue of Aloysius stands outside the church, representing the saint carrying in his arms a victim of the plague. Two miles north of the university is a Jesuit secondary school also named in honor of the saint, Gonzaga Preparatory School. Gonzaga University in Spokane is the only Jesuit university in the world named after St. Aloysius.

Gonzaga University Mission Statement

Gonzaga University is an exemplary learning community that educates students for lives of leadership and service for the common good.

In keeping with its Catholic, Jesuit, and humanistic heritage and identity, Gonzaga models and expects excellence in academic and professional pursuits and intentionally develops the whole person -- intellectually, spiritually, culturally, physically, and emotionally.

Through engagement with knowledge, wisdom, and questions informed by classical and contemporary perspectives, Gonzaga cultivates in its students the capacities and dispositions for reflective and critical thought, lifelong learning, spiritual growth, ethical discernment, creativity, and innovation.

The Gonzaga experience fosters a mature commitment to dignity of the human person, social justice, diversity, intercultural competence, global engagement, solidarity with the poor and vulnerable, and care for the planet. Grateful to God, the Gonzaga community carries out this mission with responsible stewardship of our physical, financial, and human resources.

Awards & Accolades

Sure, Gonzaga's got "game." Its basketball teams have made Gonzaga a household word nationwide. But Gonzaga is equally proud of its students' success and its long history of academic excellence.

U.S. News & World Report 2020

For the first time, Gonzaga is ranked in the "National University" category: comprised of 399 National Universities nationwide. Gonzaga is ranked in the top 20% in the nation and is in the top 5% for best undergraduate teaching. Gonzaga is recognized in several U.S. News specialty rankings, including the top 12% for best colleges for veterans. The School of Engineering and Applied Science is ranked in the top 10%, while the undergraduate business program is ranked in the top 23%. U.S. News ranks Gonzaga's graduation and retention in the top 12% of national universities.

Zags Top Nation in Graduation Success Rate

Gonzaga student-athletes are graduating at a rate of 98 percent, which is tied for seventh best in the nation, according to the latest Graduation Success Rate (GSR) numbers released by the NCAA (October 2019). This includes 10 GU teams that achieved a 100% graduation rate.

Class of 2018 Success Rate

Ninety-five percent of the Gonzaga graduates who received their bachelor's or graduate degrees with the class of 2018 reported they are employed (full- or part-time), continuing their education or doing volunteer work.

Strongest Academic Classes Three Years in a Row

The 1,257 first-year students Gonzaga welcomed to campus in late August (2019) represent the strongest academic class, and the most diverse, in its 132-year history.

Fiske Guide to Colleges 2020

Gonzaga University is included among the best 323 "best and most interesting" U.S., Canadian, British and Irish colleges and universities featured in the "Fiske Guide to Colleges 2020," a respected independent college guide for 36 years. This marks the fifth consecutive year Gonzaga has been included in the publication.

A Sustainable ‘Cool School’

Sierra magazine has named Gonzaga to its 2019 annual “Cool Schools” list, recognizing the 282 colleges, universities and community colleges in the United States and Canada with the best environmental and sustainability practices as well as the most opportunities to engage with the environmental movement.

The Princeton Review

Gonzaga University is again among the nation’s best institutions for undergraduate education, according to the 2020 edition of The Princeton Review’s annual college guidebook, “The Best 385 Colleges.”

Kiplinger’s Best College Value

Kiplinger’s Personal Finance magazine, in July 2019, ranks Gonzaga the No. 21st best value among private universities in the nation.

Tops in State for Grads Finding Jobs

Zippia, a career site, ranks Gonzaga No. 1 among colleges and universities in the state of Washington (2019) for the percentage of alumni with jobs 10 years after graduation.

Gonzaga Will

More than 40,000 generous donors contributed to the recent Gonzaga Will: The Campaign for Our Future that secured more than $355 million in the University’s largest capital campaign in its history – a full $100 million over goal. A total of $110 million of these gifts went toward student scholarships.
